

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Christy R. Jarboe, TKT & Associates, Inc.
(502) 499-9440
Christy@tktandassociates.com

TKT & Associates, Inc. Receives Small Business Supplier of the Year Award
Tri-State Minority Supplier Development Council honors TKT at annual Agave Awards

Louisville, KY, December 10, 2010 – On Thursday, December 9, 2010 at Louisville’s Kentucky Derby Museum, TKT & Associates, Inc. was named small business Supplier of the Year by the Tri-State Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC).

The Agave Awards is a locally organized event of the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC) that celebrates outstanding certified minority-owned businesses and their partnerships with member corporations.

TKT & Associates, Inc. was nominated by their client, Fayette County (Kentucky) Public Schools.

“TKT & Associates under the direction of their dynamic, smart, innovative, and very knowledgeable leader Tierra Kavanaugh Turner, is a primary if not the main reason for the successes and strides that we are making here at Fayette County Schools,” said Mr. Rodney Jackson, Director of Financial Services, Fayette County Public Schools.

“Simply being recognized, much less nominated, by our clients is the most gratifying reward a business owner can ask for,” said Tierra Kavanaugh Turner, CEO and founder of TKT & Associates, Inc. “The values that guide us are the principles that place client stewardship above all else. Our clients motivate and inspire us on a daily basis.”

TKT & Associates, Inc. (www.tktandassociates.com) is the leader in providing innovative supplier and workforce diversity programs for public- and private-sector clients, specialized staffing services, consultative resources and strategic growth programs for small, disadvantaged, minority- and women-owned businesses.

###