LOUISVILLE AREA TEENS DEFYING STEREOTYPES
PGA Championship at Valhalla hires youths and young adults

(Louisville, KY – August 1, 2014) Countering the negative perception of youths in the area, over 30 teens and young adults from all over Louisville Metro, including West Louisville and Valley Station are set to work at the prestigious PGA Championship held at Valhalla Golf Club.

Setting up tents, trash removal and greeting attendees are some of the jobs these youths will be performing. They will work seven days to prepare for and clean up during and after the event, some working shifts that start at 5:00 AM.

“We are so very proud of this group of young people,” said Tierra Kavanaugh Turner, CEO of TKT-nectir Global Staffing LLC. “They are enthusiastic, hard working and a wonderful representation of the Louisville Metro area.”

“Earnie Ellison, Ellison Consulting Group, LLC, consultant with the PGA, was instrumental in bringing TKT-nectir to the table to provide staffing for the event,” she added.

TKT-nectir Global Staffing worked with multiple community groups to assist with the outreach and would like to thank Mike Shoulders with JCPS, member of Omega Psi Phi, the Chairman of Theta Omega's Men of Quality, Mike Anderson with Project One and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Theta Omega Chapter. Wal-Mart Neighborhood Market in St. Matthews generously donated funds to provide water and snacks for the workers. An additional sincere thanks to the parents and grandparents for providing transportation for the youth whom were unable to drive, on their own, to our offices and the shuttle sites.

“Through our outreach and staffing opportunities, we hope to provide more opportunities for the youth in our community and provide positive role models for teens and young adults,” added Ms. Turner.
