Tierra Kavanaugh Turner Named to Kentucky Chamber Board of Directors

FRANKFORT, Ky. (March 29, 2010) – The Kentucky Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce that Tierra Kavanaugh Turner, CEO of TKT and Associates in Louisville, has been elected to its board of directors. Turner will serve on the 60-member board, which represents a cross-section of key business and industry leaders from across Kentucky.

“We are delighted that Tierra is joining the board of Kentucky’s leading business organization,” said Chamber President and CEO Dave Adkisson. “The Kentucky Chamber is in the business of uniting business and advancing Kentucky. Tierra will help us to do that.”

About the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce

From its beginnings in 1946 as a bipartisan voice for business at the state Capitol, the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce has evolved into the premier business association in the state. Today the Chamber represents 2,700 member businesses – from Fortune 500 companies to family-owned shops – that employ over half of the Commonwealth’s workforce. Kentucky Chamber members benefit from a broad range of services: year-round lobbying, timely communications on business issues, publications and seminars on evolving regulations and policies, and a variety of other member benefits.
